TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

STRAIGHT TALK FROM THE POWERS

The Judge is Utterly Dismayed By the Circular of the Goldbugs.

DON'T HAVE TO PLAY IN OUR YARD.

Not a Necessity That They Should Yell Down Our Rain Barrel.

Bankers Who Imagine That They Can Intimidate the People of the West By Covert Threats But Deceive Themselves—"We Were Not," Says Judge Powers, "Brought Up to the Mountains to Be Scared by the Hoot of the Owls—If the Pawbrokers of the Country Cause a Wreck, They Will Find Themselves Badly Mixed Up in It."

CHICAGO, July 5.—Judge Powers, of Utah, is among the delegates who have received letters from a banker's firm of this city in regard to the effect that a silver declaration would have upon the business interests of the country. In this letter it is stated that $150,000 have been invested through the firm in Utah.

Referring to the circular Judge Powers said:

"If this company and the clients of that concern do not care to play in our back yard they need not. If they do not want to invest in Utah some one else will. Their clients will receive whatever is due them, for Utah will pay dollar for dollar, as nominated in the bond. If these bankers think they can intimidate and prevent us from carrying out the will of our constituents by covert threats then I say to them that we are not brought up in the mountains to be scared by owls. If they intend to help create a financial panic in order to drive people to support the gold standard, I have only to say to them that in pulling out the pillars of the financial temple they will bring the edifice upon their own heads as well as ours, and we can stand it as well as they. I think the bankers had better let us run politics our own way and devote their attention to business. Perhaps there would be fewer failures."

"BLAND" "BLAND" "BLAND"

Such is the Cry Heard Everywhere in Chicago—Utah Solid For Him.

(Special to The Herald.)

CHICAGO, July 5.—"Bland," "Bland," is the cry heard on all sides and the situation at Chicago at midnight looks very much like Bland.

He is far away in the lead. His supporters claim he has already 350 votes assured, and that both Ohio and Illinois will vote for him.

The two-hundred-vote contest between Boies and Matthews of Indiana, and then Matthews of Indiana. But it seems to be Bland against the field. The two-thirds rule will undoubtedly prevail, as usual in Democratic national conventions, and the supporters of Bland's rivals declare that the Missouri stateman can never secure the required two-thirds.

But Bland is easily the choice of the mob that infest the lobbies of the Palmer house, the Auditorium and Great Northern hotels.

Incoming rural delegations, headed by noisy brass bands, are shouting for Bland. The hotel lobbies and sidewalks of Chicago streets are placarded with lithographs of the Missouri statesman, while all through the Palmer house are index fingers pointing the way to "Silver Dick's" headquarters. Bland buttons are as plenty as blackberries.

The Herald's special car with the Utah delegates and friends arrived rolled into the Chicago & Northwestern station at 7 this morning, and the delegates after seeking hotel accommodations met at the Palmer house headquarters, Room No. 15 has been engaged for the Utah headquarters. It overlooks State street and is one of the most advantageous locations of any of the state delegations. The room was filled with callers all day and the blue silk and silver Herald badges were in great demand.

Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson, who comes as one of the four women delegates elected from Utah, was besieged by interviewers today.

She will be the only woman member of the convention. Mrs. Ferguson stated to interviewers her belief that 50,000 women would vote in Utah this fall, and that a vast majority of them would vote the Democratic ticket. The Utah delegation held a caucus at 11 o'clock this morning, and unanimously resolved to vote for Bland from first to last. They expressed no second choice, nor did they express any preference for the vice-presidential nominee.

The Boies Boom.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The managers of the Boies campaign say they are very much encouraged by the reports received today from their scouts and skirmishers, who have been canvassing the incoming delegations. They declare Boies has developed a great deal of unexpected strength, and that he is the second choice of two-thirds of the delegates. They are sensible of the fact that the Boies men will not favor the adoption of the two-thirds rule. The Boies men think the prejudice against the selection of a southern man will operate against Mr. Bland and prevent his nomination. They say that as soon as it becomes apparent that Bland cannot be nominated Boies will be selected.

Iowa men have been arriving all day. Colonel T. J. Phillips, of Ottumwa, arrived tonight with 800 Boies boomers, who

CHANCES OF "SILVER DICK"

Up to Date They Are Certainly of the Most Promising Character.

UTAH IS GOOD FOR HIM.

Nearly All the Western States Are Solid.

California and the Two Dakotas May Go Against Him—"Dick" Alleged to Be Such a Strong Exponent of Silver as to Make Him the Strongest and Most Available Candidate—Suggestion of Teller as a Member of Bland's Cabinet.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Bland forces executed a coup today by the convening of a caucus at 2:30 o'clock at the Sherman house, attended by representatives of those trans-Mississippi states favorable to Bland. The notice of the caucus had not been widely circulated, so that the large attendance of prominent western leaders was a source of unexpected gratification to the Bland managers. Sixteen states were represented, having an aggregate of 218 votes in the convention, and from the assurances given it was believed that most if not all of these western votes could be relied on for Bland.

The states represented with their respective votes were as follows:

Arkansas, 16; Colorado, 8; Idaho, 6; Illinois, 48; Kansas, 20; Missouri, 34;

Montana, 6; Oregon, 8; Texas, 30; Utah, 6; Washington, 8; Wyoming, 6; Arizona, 6; New Mexico, 8; Indian Territory, 6; Oklahoma, 6; Alaska, 6.

WEST OF THE RIVER.

These states comprise all west of the Missouri river except California and the two Dakotas.

No action was organized by the selection of ex-Senator Martin of Kansas as chairman and L. T. Dashiell of Texas as secretary. In taking the chair Senator Martin made a vigorous speech in support of the Bland candidacy. On a call of the states a delegate from each of the states represented, spoke of the Bland sentiment.

Governor Overmeyer of Kansas declared Bland was the only candidate who could be sure of carrying Kansas, and that the delegation from that state would stand for him first, last and all the time. Representative Bailey of Texas talked in vigorous style in support of Bland, but cautioned the friends of the Missouri candidate to be prepared for that opposition which always concentrated against the foremost candidate. Speeches were made also by representatives from Indian Territory, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Colorado. They were uniformly enthusiastic and voiced the sentiment that Bland was such an exponent of silver as to make him the candidate in the western states.

One of the strongest speeches was made by "Buck" Hinrichsen of the Illinois delegation, who is regarded as next to Governor Algeid in influence in that delegation. He spoke strongly in favor of Bland and expressed the opinion that the forty-eight votes of Illinois would be given to the Missouri candidate.

No action was taken beyond hearing the reports of the various states and exchanging congratulations on what the Bland managers regarded as a most favorable showing. They pointed out in particular that the caucus was representative of the western states, and besides these Bland had a large following in the south. The sentiment was that the delegates of the west, having this met in caucus and should now exert their influence upon the delegates of the south with a view to persuading them that the west and the south united could command the situation.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at 10 o'clock tonight, at which time further sessions were expected. It was explained that the two Dakotas and California were not represented by reason of the fact that the delegations from these states had not yet arrived. The Bland managers are confident, however, that these three states will join with the others which have indicated a preference for Bland.

Some question was raised as to whether the expressions given at the caucus could be relied upon as showing the tendency of the various states represented. Secretary Dashiell said positively after the caucus that the expressions in each case were not those of individual delegates, but correctly stated the position of the various states, either as the result of a caucus, or of instructions. In some of the states represented, however, it is evident the with positiveness for Bland. Oregon has Governor Penoyer for its first choice, and there are said to be scattered votes for other candidates.

Before the meeting closed Senator Martin read a letter just received from San Francisco, stating that a club of 1,000 Democrats and Populists had been organized in favor of the candidacy of "Dick" Bland for the presidency, and also favoring Senator Teller for secretary of the treasury in a Bland cabinet. This suggestion of Teller in Bland's cabinet evoked a double round of applause.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The gold men thought this morning that they had the call on the temporary organization of the convention, when the executive committee decided to name Senator Hill, of New York, for the place. They thought that the senator had so many friends, especially among the free silver Democratic senators, that they would permit him to be elected rather than have him humiliated by being defeated. The silver men at once got together and two silver Democratic senators, White and Cockrell, were sent to the gentleman from New York, who told him in all kindness that he would certainly be turned down; that although they had the utmost regard for him personally, they would work and vote against him. Mr. Hill, while not desiring the place, stated he was not radical on the question of silver, and position is fast being finished and the general interest taken in the increase.
